The Science that Changes Lives & Lifestyles

People everywhere want to learn how to live a healthier life; more and more people are becoming passionate about it. OlyLife gives you the ability to turn that passion for healthy living into a meaningful income opportunity & business empire.

Our Principal & Manufacturer - Yong Chun Tang

"Yong Chun Tang" was established in 1999. It is a well-known "Large Health" enterprise in China and a listed company that has won the "National Key Leading Enterprise in Forestry" title.

Yong Chun Tang Group of Companies is involved in the upstream, midstream, and downstream activities of the entire industry, including scientific research collaborations with higher institutions of learning and universities, to developing health products and commercializing the products.

OlyLife has partnered with a number of domestic institutions, research centres, and business specialists. An academician workstation, business technology centre, Ginkgo research centre, municipal engineering laboratory, and municipal postdoctoral innovation workstation, these are research and development facilities the company has established. The goal is to leverage their technology and talent advantages into product and market advantages and build a strong foundation for the OlyLife business.

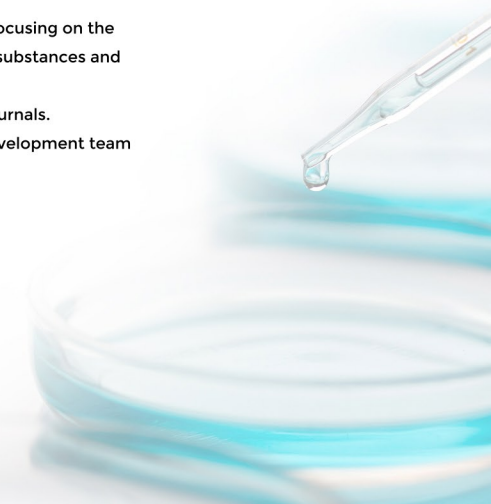

Based on our philosophy, hand in hand, together we bring "OlyLife" to the world.

Therapy Equipments

OlyLife AquaX

Hydrogen-rich water is small molecular water rich in Hydrogen and is popularly known as the most powerful antioxidant available. It effectively remove harmful free radicals from the human body, and it is popular among celebrities, athletes, beauty lovers, and people who pay attention to health. Hydrogen-rich water has strong penetrating power and can be easily absorbed by the body up to the cellular level.

OlyLife THz Tera-P90

The Fifth Element - Geomagnetism

Life on Earth appeared when the geomagnetic field was formed and increased to a certain strength. The huge magnetosphere formed by the earth's magnetic field on the surface of the earth forms a natural protective barrier against the invasion of the outside world. Only living in a normal geomagnetic field can guarantee the health and continuation of life. Therefore, like sunlight, air, water, and nutrition, geomagnetism is the fifth element for life to survive.

Dietary
Nutritions

OlyLife Active+

Multiple peptides for multiple functions. The Active+ is specially designed for replenishing vitality & boosting immunity. It contains patented biological enzymatic hydrolysis technology to extract small molecule peptides from strictly selected ingredients for easy absorption and retain their activity.

OlyLife Ensure+

Six peptides in one scientific combination. Ensure+ contains natural plant-based raw material with a unique formulation to increase optimum nutrient absorption. It contains two patents - a biological cell-disruption technique & a thermostatically controlled enzymolysis technique. These advanced technologies produce high-quality peptides that are functional & effective.

OlyLife WonderMeal

An apple a day keeps the doctor away;
A tablet a meal keeps carbo at bay.

The white kidney bean extract is allowed by the USFDA to function as:

- May reduce the digestion of dietary starch by enzymes;
- May aid in weight control when combined with a sound diet and exercise program.

In the 2011 Nutrition Journal review, using white kidney bean extract in combination with a high carbohydrate diet may induce weight loss and carb-reduced blood sugar spikes.

OlyLife SOSO WonderMeal

It's not a diet it's a lifestyle change, SOSO Wondermeal is the mainstream of the 21st Century. An innovative meal replacement drink, jointly created by the research and development team of OlyLife, Xiamen University, Shanxi University, and Japan Biomolecular Enzyme Research Institute for weight loss. SOSO Wondermeal is nutritionally balanced, low in calories, rapid in fat burning, and improves the gut environment and metabolism.
